Polite verbs: ます

Oboeru 覚える

The first form you learn and the one that is safe with anyone — a stranger, a shop assistant, your boss. Build it once and five more patterns come with it.

The rule, by verb group

Group 2 · る-verbs (ichidan) — drop る, add ます. 開ける → 開けます akeru → akemasu

Group 3 · irregular — just two verbs: する → します shimasu, 来る → 来ます kimasu

Group 1 · う-verbs (godan) — change the last kana to the one in the same row with an i sound, then add ます:

Group 1: swap the last kana for its i sound

Use it

〜ましょう let's — 飲みましょう

〜たいです I want to — 聞きたいです

〜に行きます go and do — 泳ぎに行きます

〜ませんか shall we? — 泳ぎませんか

〜ながら while doing — 聞きながら

〜方 how to — 使い方

Watch out

"Did not" takes two words. 飲みませんでした, never 飲みませんかった.

来る changes its sound. 来ます is kimasu, but 来る is kuru. Same kanji, two readings.

Two things you get free

The part before ます is a building block. 飲み・聞き・使い — every pattern in "Use it" attaches right there.

Politeness is only the ending. The meaning does not change, so you can say the same thing plainly later by swapping the ending.
